November Remembrance: November is the month in which we remember the dead. It is a time when those we loved who have gone from this world before us, to be with God and are very much in our thoughts. During the month of November, we pray in a special way for our loved ones. Please bring your list of those you wish to be remembered in masses in the coming weeks. A box for these envelopes and names of those to be prayed for, will be available in the church before each mass for this purpose or you can leave same in the Parish Office of Parochial House. You can use the envelopes of remembrance which are in the churches or an envelope of your own or the one in your yearly pack of envelopes to remember your loved ones.
